

Society

THE HERALD SOCIETY EDITOR'S PHONE IS 1011.

ORDINARILY we would leave the subject of baseball to the athletic column of the paper, but the same Tuesday afternoon deserves special mention on the society page for society was there with a capital S. All social functions as well as the business of the town were suspended for the afternoon while everybody sojourned far a little while at Hopewell Field to witness the opening game of the league season. Grandstand and bleachers were filled long before the game, and much enthusiasm was displayed, especially by the remaining portion of the crowd. We don't doubt for a moment their enthusiasm, but somehow we feel that on this special occasion the women folks put up a "good bluff." However, we feel reasonably sure that the women folks are to become real fans before the season closes, favoring the players by their inspiring presence, not on ladies' days only, but even on days when they have to dig up their very often gloves in order to witness the game. The lady folks are "betting on" the Albuquerque team, not out of patriotism alone but because it is a safe bet, and they are going to turn out and "root" for Albuquerque right along. It's a prophecy.

PAVLOVA.

The event of the week and of the entire season was the appearance of "the incomparable" Pavlova, "divinity of the dance," and her splendid company. It was one of those rare occasions when fate, or in this case, fortune favors us, for it was by the merest chance that the wonderful dancer came our way. Three years ago the Imperial Russian Ballet signed a contract to appear at the Panama exposition, and on account of the trouble some times in Europe several others of continental fame joined Pavlova, making this performance the best of her whole career. For she was able to call to her assistance Ivan Clastine, director de ballet at the Paris opera house, and M. Voinine, the foremost male dancer of Europe, and a number of others of equal fame.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Stern have announced the engagement of their daughter Alice to Mr. Leon M. Hall of Los Angeles. The wedding will take place in the early autumn. Tomorrow afternoon from three to six Mr. and Mrs. Stern will be at home informally to about one hundred and twenty-five guests in honor of the newly engaged couple.

ORGAN RECITAL TUESDAY.

On Tuesday morning at 10:30 in the Congregational church Mr. Seder will give an organ recital to which the public is invited. He will be assisted by Mrs. J. O. Schwentker, in the following program:

METHODIST LADIES ENTERTAINMENT.

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season was given in the parlors of the First Methodist Episcopal church on Tuesday afternoon to the winners of a calling contest, by the losers. The spacious parlors were beautifully decorated for the occasion, and upon entering the ladies were cordially greeted by the president, Mrs. Chas. Watlington and the afternoon was spent by the guests with needlework and in chatting informally. Miss Pearl Tompkins, accompanied by Mrs. Bonvan, delighted everyone with her sweet voice, and responded to repeated applause with a humorous little encore. At the close of the afternoon the guests were invited to the dining room where four long tables were laid with all the good things usual to such occasions, each table being decorated with fragrant pink and white carnations and graceful lace ferns. Following the elaborate luncheon Dr. Beckman commanded the winning ladies highly for their work, also the losers for their work in the contest, and for the delightful entertainment prepared for the winners.

The stage settings were entirely different, the first setting for the "Puppen Fee" (The Fairy Doll) was the first faunistic scene setting seen in America. The next, the ball room, was a replica of the salon of the Savoy in London. The third for the "diversions" was also painted by the famous Russian artist Dubouguinsky.

The music was all classical, and the orchestra an evening's entertainment in itself, while the interpretations by the dancers was all that could be wished for. Perhaps the most beautiful was the interpretation by Miss Pavlova of "The Night" by Rusinstein.

The "Dance Grecque" by Brahms also deserved mention as a wonderful grouping of tints of coloring and graceful poses.

At any rate we are proud of Albuquerque for the manifestation of her thorough appreciation of an attraction that was worth while, for it will have its effect upon raising the standard of our amusements.

WOMAN'S CLUB.

At the meeting of the Woman's club yesterday afternoon, after a discussion of the constitution and by-laws, a program was carried out, consisting of two vocal numbers by Miss Eleanore Perry, (a) "On the Shore," and (b) "A Garden Romance" and also one by Miss Hortense Switzer, "Hammerin' from the Firefly," and talks on "How to Keep Cool in Hot Weather," by Dr. Evelyn Frisbie and Mrs. J. J. Gould. The soloists answered to encores in each instance and the talk were listened to with a great amount of interest in spite of the fact that there is snow on the mountains and mercury ranges down about 40 degrees, as Dr. Frisbie introduced her remarks with the slogan "In time of peace prepare for war."

SECRETARY HOUSTON ENTERTAINED.

David P. Houston, secretary of the department of agriculture, with a party from Washington, visiting the headquarters of forest district three here Monday and was entertained at luncheon at the Country club by District Forester Blodland, the following being present: Secretary Houston, Francis Caffey, solicitor of the department; A. At the close of the luncheon the party were driven to the headquarters of the forest service where the secretary made an inspection of each office and met the clerks and other employees, and later in the afternoon he and his party were taken out by the Commercial club for a ride about the city and surrounding country. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the work of the district.

LUNCHEON-BRIDGE CLUB.

The newly organized Luncheon Bridge club held its first meeting with Frank Butt on Wednesday afternoon. The members are: Miss Jennie Butt, Mrs. Frank Butt, Mrs. E. A. Davis, Mrs. Fred Hornby, Mrs. S. E. McElwain, Mrs. L. M. Raynor, Mrs. Nathaniel Lines, Mrs. George S. Vaillant.

The ladies of St. John's Guild are planning an apron sale to take place at the Woman's club on the afternoon of May 26th. In the evening there will be a dancing party strictly for social purposes.

Commencement Exercises of State University Occupy First Place In Week's Calendar

THE New Mexico state university closes its twenty-fifth and most successful year of college work in the annual commencement exercises which begin tomorrow afternoon with the baccalaureate address by Dr. Moise Bergman, rabbi of Temple Albert, this city, and which will close with the conferring of degrees on Wednesday morning and the delivery of the commencement address, by Hon. Felix Martinez, of El Paso, Texas, a member of the New Mexico legislature which established the university and one of its strongest friends. The commencement program covers a wide range of athletic, musical and social events, all of which, for the first time, will be held on the university campus. On Monday the annual dual track meet between the university and the State Agricultural College at Las Cruces takes place, followed by the annual baseball game between teams of the two institutions on Tuesday afternoon. Musical events for the week will be unusually noteworthy, including a concert by the University Choral society, in combination with choirs of the various Albuquerque churches, and the university philharmonic orchestra of thirty pieces, a development of the departure of music this year under the direction of E. Stanley Seder, a young musical director and composer whose work is attracting considerably more than local attention.

The complete program for the commencement week follows:
